6) If at the time the reversion of Mr. Abdul Hukh was ordered, any specific period during which the punishment was to be in force had been indicated, he would perhaps have automatically taken his original place in the cadre of Deputy Commissioners on the expiry of such period. The question whether the reversion in this case was to be permanent or temporary was, however, then left open for decision "some months hence," but the subsequent order restoring him to the grade of Deputy Commissioner may be taken to indicate that the reversion is to be considered as temporary.

7) Mr. Abdul Hukh had put in a service of one year as acting Deputy Commissioner by the time of his reversion and he was P.P. in the III Class of Deputy Commissioners his rank in the cadre being just above Mr. Appaji Gowda. He has been now appointed to act as Deputy Commissioner, III Class. He prays that the punishment already undergone by him may be considered adequate for any fault of his and that his future prospects also may not be made to suffer on this account and that his former relative rank may be taken into consideration for purposes of promotion.

8 The question of fixing his relative rank in the cadre may, if approved, be considered at a meeting of the Council.

Submitted to His Highness.

15 I beg to invite reference to His Highness's gracious orders dated 29th May 1937, approving of the proposal to repromote Mr. M. Abdul Hukh as acting Deputy Commissioner and post him as Registrar of Co-operative Societies. He accordingly joined his new post on 7th June 1937.

16 At the time of reversion to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioner in October 1936, Mr. Abdul Hukh was a provisionally permanent Deputy Commissioner of the Third Class, his rank in the cadre being just below Mr. S. Narayana Rao and above Mr. J Appaji Gowda. He has now submitted a representation that the punishment already undergone by him may be deemed to be adequate for any fault of his, that he may not be made to suffer further in respect of his future prospects also, and that he may be allowed the benefit of future promotions in the cadre on the basis of the relative rank formerly held by him before his reversion.

17 The question was considered at a meeting of the Council held on the 19th July 1937 when the following resolution was recorded:-

> "Mr. Abdul Hukh may be restored to his former rank among Deputy Commissioners".
